

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

DOUGLAS MARSHALL,

Plaintiff,

v.

CITY OF WARREN and
JAMES R. FOUTS, in his individual capacity and in his official capacity as mayor of Warren,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Douglas Marshall states as follows for his Complaint against Defendants City of Warren and its mayor James R. Fouts:

Introductory Statement

1. When the government opens a forum for private speech, it must treat viewpoints equally, and it is strictly forbidden from favoring religious expression over non-religious speech.

2. In this case, the government has opened a forum in which religious speech is allowed but Plaintiff's atheist speech is prohibited. This is unconstitutional viewpoint discrimination.

3. Plaintiff therefore brings this civil rights action under the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as enforceable through 42 U.S.C. § 1983, seeking a declaratory judgment, injunctive relief, and damages.

Parties, Jurisdiction, and Venue

4. Plaintiff Douglas Marshall (“Marshall”) is a resident of the city of Warren, which is located in Macomb County, Michigan.

5. Defendant City of Warren (“Warren”) is a municipal corporation located in Macomb County and organized under the laws of the State of Michigan.

6. Defendant James R. Fouts (“Mayor Fouts”) is the mayor of Warren. Mayor Fouts is named as a defendant in this matter in both his individual and official capacities.

7. Mayor Fouts has final authority to establish municipal policy with respect to the actions taken by him against Plaintiff as described in this Complaint.

8. Jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this is a civil action arising under the Constitution and laws of the United States.

9. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to Plaintiff’s claims occurred within this judicial district.

Factual Allegations

The City Hall Atrium Is Available for Public Use

10. Warren’s municipal government is housed in the Warren Civic Center, also commonly known as City Hall.

11. The Civic Center has a large atrium which is open to the public.

12. Warren has written policies governing reserved use of the atrium and other space in the Civic Center. (See Ex. A, Civic Center Facilities Rental Policies and Rules.)

13. The policies state that the atrium space is available for reserved use by a wide variety of groups and individuals, including civic organizations and Warren residents. (Id., ¶ 1.)

14. The policies provide that the atrium “may be reserved for most types of functions or activities EXCEPT . . . [a]ny private event charging a fee or admission” and “[w]hen there is sale of merchandise, products or services (unless otherwise approved by the DDA/TIFA Director).” (Id., ¶ 5.)

15. The policies list four criteria to be considered when granting or denying a request to use space: “(a) What is the nature of the meeting? (b) Is membership to the group open to all persons without regard to race, color, sex, religion, or physical handicap? (c) Would content of the meeting/activity interfere with the rights of the general public or proprietary functions of the Warren

Downtown Development Authority or the City of Warren? (d) Is the renter of the facility 21 years of age and willing to take responsibility for damages incurred during the time designated on the Rental Application?” (Id., ¶ 4.)

16. Individuals and groups wishing to use space in the atrium must complete a Civic Center Facilities Rental Application.

17. The application asks for contact information, a description of the activity, and expected attendance, among other things. (See Ex. B, Civic Center Facilities Rental Application.)

The “Prayer Station”

18. Since at least 2009, Pastor Darius Walden has applied to use space in the atrium on behalf of the Tabernacle. (See Ex. C, Walden Civic Center Facilities Rental Applications.)

19. The Tabernacle is a Pentecostal ministry located in Warren and affiliated with the Church of God.

20. In his applications, Pastor Walden requested space in the atrium for a “prayer station.” (Id.)

21. Warren has been granting Pastor Walden and/or the Tabernacle permission to use space in the atrium for the prayer station since 2009 per their request.

22. The prayer station consists of a folding table with two chairs, religious literature on display, and an overhead banner that says “PRAYER STATION.” (See Ex. D, Photograph of Prayer Station.)

23. Volunteers operate the prayer station in the atrium four days a week from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

24. Volunteers who operate the prayer station distribute religious pamphlets, offer to pray with passersby, and discuss their religious beliefs with people who approach the station.

The Proposed “Reason Station”

25. Plaintiff Douglas Marshall is a resident of Warren.

26. Mr. Marshall periodically goes to the Civic Center and enters its atrium in the regular course of his personal and civic affairs, including to pay his property taxes and his water bill, and to pick up and drop off his absent voter ballot. When Mr. Marshall enters the atrium, he ordinarily encounters the prayer station there. Mr. Marshall also regularly pays property taxes to Warren, which support Warren’s ongoing operation and maintenance of the Civic Center’s atrium.

27. Mr. Marshall is an atheist.

28. For Mr. Marshall, atheism is a deeply and sincerely held viewpoint that occupies a place in his life parallel to that occupied by God in traditionally religious persons.

29. As an atheist, Mr. Marshall does not believe in a god, and he promotes what he describes as reason and freethought as an alternative to religious belief.

30. Mr. Marshall wishes to set up a “reason station” in the Civic Center atrium. Similar in size, structure and function to the prayer station, the reason station would consist of a folding table and chairs, an identifying sign, and atheist literature on display and available to the public. Mr. Marshall and other volunteers who operate the reason station would offer to have philosophical discussions with passersby who express an interest in atheism and freethought.

31. Some of the literature Mr. Marshall wishes to distribute at the reason station would come from the Freedom From Religion Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization of which he is a member. The mission of the Freedom From Religion Foundation includes educating the public about nontheism.

32. Mr. Marshall does not intend for his reason station to disrupt the prayer station in any way.

33. On April 9, 2014, Mr. Marshall submitted a Civic Center Facilities Rental Application to Warren. (See Ex. E, Marshall Civic Center Facilities Rental Application.)

34. Mr. Marshall included his name, address, phone number, and email on the application. (Id.)

35. He requested atrium space for a “reason station.” (Id.)

36. The application requests reserved space in the atrium two days a week from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. (Id.)

37. In all material respects, Mr. Marshall's application is identical to Pastor Walden's applications, except that where Pastor Walden's applications seek use of the atrium for a "prayer station," Mr. Marshall's application seeks use of the atrium for a "reason station." (Compare Ex. E with Ex. C.)

Mayor Fouts Rejects the Reason Station

38. On or about April 17, 2014, Mr. Marshall received a letter from Mayor Fouts dated April 15, 2014.

39. In the letter, Mayor Fouts denied Mr. Marshall's request to use space in the atrium.

40. Mayor Fouts's letter states in full:

Dear Mr. Marshall:

The City of Warren through the Downtown Development Authority has received your request to use space in the atrium. It is my understanding that you are affiliated with Freedom from Religion, a group that has objected to the Nativity Scene, the Prayer Station in the atrium and the Annual Day of Prayer in front of city hall.

All of these events are allowed because of the right to freedom of religion constitutional amendment. We cannot and will not restrict this right for any religion to use the atrium, as long as the activity is open to all religions.

Freedom from Religion is not a religion. It has no tenets, no place of worship and no congregation. To my way of thinking, your group is strictly an anti-religion group intending to deprive all organized religions of their constitutional freedoms or at least discourage the practice of religion. The City of Warren cannot allow this.

Also, I believe it is your group's intention to disrupt those who participate in the Prayer Station which would also be a violation of the freedom of religion amendment.

For these reasons, I cannot approve of your request.

Sincerely,

/s/ James R. Fouts

James R. Fouts
Mayor of Warren

(Ex. F, Letter from Mayor Fouts, emphases in original.)

41. Defendants' decision to deny the reason station while allowing the prayer station caused Mr. Marshall to perceive that Warren favors and endorses traditional religious beliefs over atheistic beliefs. Defendants' decision made Mr. Marshall feel unwelcome at the Civic Center, an outsider in the community, a second-class citizen in Warren, and a disfavored member of a religious minority group. Mr. Marshall further objects to his tax payments supporting the operation and maintenance of a facility that Defendants control in a discriminatory manner that advances traditional religious beliefs over atheistic beliefs. Defendants' decision made and continues to make Mr. Marshall feel discriminated against, offended, angry, upset, and sad. Defendants' conduct thus harmed and continues to harm Mr. Marshall.

42. On April 18, 2014, Americans United for Separation of Church and State, one of the legal organizations representing Mr. Marshall, sent a letter to Mayor Fouts and Warren City Attorney David Griem (copying the Warren City Council) explaining in detail that Mayor Fouts's denial of Mr. Marshall's application was plainly unconstitutional, notifying the mayor that failure to reverse his decision would likely lead to litigation, and asking for a response within thirty days. (Ex. G, Letter from Americans United.) No response was received.

Causes of Action

Count 1

First Amendment – Free Speech Clause

42 U.S.C. § 1983

43. The First Amendment to the United States Constitution prohibits abridgement of the freedom of speech and expression. The First Amendment is incorporated against the States by the Fourteenth Amendment. Persons violating the First Amendment under color of state law are liable at law and in equity under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

44. Defendants have imposed and are imposing a content- and viewpoint-based restriction on Plaintiff's speech in violation of the Free Speech Clause of the First Amendment.

Count 2
First Amendment – Establishment Clause
42 U.S.C. § 1983

45. The First Amendment to the United States Constitution prohibits government laws, policies and actions respecting the establishment of religion.

46. Under the Establishment Clause, the government is prohibited from favoring one religion over another religion.

47. Additionally, the Establishment Clause prohibits the government from favoring religion over nonreligion, or favoring religious belief over disbelief.

48. By prohibiting Plaintiff from reserving and using atrium space because his belief system “is not a religion” (Ex. F), while allowing similarly situated religious groups and persons to reserve and use atrium space “because of the right to freedom of religion” (id.), Defendants have favored and are favoring religion over nonreligion, and religious belief over disbelief, in violation of the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment.

Count 3
(In the Alternative to Counts 1 and 2)
First Amendment – Establishment Clause
42 U.S.C. § 1983

49. Plaintiff believes that the prayer station is properly classified as private speech in a public forum.

50. Because the prayer station is private speech, Plaintiff does not challenge Defendants' authority to allow the prayer station to operate in the atrium; he merely seeks equal access to the forum to express his nonreligious viewpoint.

51. However, if the Court concludes that the prayer station is government speech, then, as an alternative to Counts 1 and 2, the prayer station violates the Establishment Clause because its purpose is primarily religious, its principal or primary effect advances and endorses religion, and/or it fosters an excessive government entanglement with religion.

Relief Requested

For the reasons set forth above, Plaintiff requests that this Court:

- A. Enter judgment in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendants;
- B. Declare, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201, that Defendants' denial of Plaintiff's request to reserve and use atrium space for a "reason station" violates Plaintiff's rights under the First Amendment;
- C. Enter preliminary and permanent injunctions requiring Defendants to allow Plaintiff's "reason station" on terms no less favorable than those provided to the persons and groups who operate the "prayer station";
- D. Award Plaintiff compensatory damages, or in the alternative nominal damages, for violations of his First Amendment rights;
- E. Award Plaintiff costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988; and
- F. Grant or award such other relief as the Court may deem just, equitable or appropriate under the circumstances.

Mr. Douglas Marshall

[REDACTED]
Warren, MI 48093

Dear Mr. Marshall:

The City of Warren through the Downtown Development Authority has received your request to use space in the atrium. It is my understanding that you are affiliated with Freedom from Religion, a group that has objected to the Nativity Scene, the Prayer Station in the atrium and the Annual Day of Prayer in front of city hall.

All of these events are allowed because of the right to freedom of religion constitutional amendment. We cannot and will not restrict this right for any religion to use the atrium, as long as the activity is open to all religions.

Freedom from Religion is not a religion. It has no tenets, no place of worship and no congregation.

To my way of thinking, your group is strictly an anti-religion group intending to deprive all organized religions of their constitutional freedoms or at least discourage the practice of religion. The City of Warren cannot allow this.

Also, I believe it is your group's intention to disrupt those who participate in the Prayer Station which would also be a violation of the freedom of religion amendment.

For these reasons, I cannot approve of your request.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Fouts and Mr. Griem:

We have received a complaint regarding Mayor Fouts' rejection of Douglas Marshall's application to erect a "Reason Station" in the atrium of the Warren City Hall. Mayor Fouts has allowed religious "Prayer Stations" to be erected in the same space and has publicly stated that any religion or ethnic group would be permitted to set up a station in the space. See Christina Hall, Warren mayor says atheist can't put up 'reason station' inside city hall, Detroit Free Press, April 16, 2014, available at <http://www.freep.com> (last visited April 17, 2014). Yet, Mayor Fouts explained in a letter sent to Mr. Marshall that he rejected his application because of Mr. Marshall's previous objection to religious displays in the atrium and because of his affiliation with the Freedom From Religion Foundation, which the Mayor described as "an anti-religion group intending to deprive all organized religions of their constitutional freedoms or at least discourage the practice of religion," adding, "The City of Warren cannot allow this." Letter from James R. Fouts to Douglas Marshall (April 15, 2014), copy on file with author (emphasis in original). The Mayor's decision is an egregious violation of Mr. Marshall's constitutional rights. We ask that you rescind this decision and approve Mr. Marshall's use of space in the atrium.

The government may open a forum for private speech, but if it does so, it must treat religious and non-religious viewpoints equally. See Good News Club v. Milford Cent. Sch., 533 U.S. 98, 106 (2001); Lamb's Chapel v. Ctr. Moriches Union Free Sch. Dist., 508 U.S. 384, 392-94 (1993). When the government denies access to a public forum because it disagrees with the viewpoint of the private speech that will be expressed in the forum, the government has engaged in viewpoint discrimination in violation of the Free Speech Clause of the First Amendment. Capitol Square Rev. & Advisory Bd. v. Pinette, 515 U.S. 753, 761 (1995); Rosenberger v. Rector and Visitors of Univ. of Va., 515 U.S. 819, 828-29 (1995). Mayor Fouts has openly admitted that he denied the application based on Mr. Marshall's associations and views on religion, plainly violating the First Amendment.

Perhaps Mayor Fouts believes that he has the right to deny Mr. Marshall's application under the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit's decision in Freedom from Religion Foundation v. City of Warren, 707 F.3d 686 (6th Cir. 2013), which denied the Foundation's request to include a secular display in the City's holiday display. But such a belief would be incorrect, because the display at issue in City of Warren was not private speech in a public forum. 707 F.3d at 697. Rather, the holiday display was the government's own speech, which gave the government the right to edit, ensor, and otherwise control its content. Id. at 696-97. Mayor Fouts, in contrast, has declared that city hall is a public forum where any religion or ethnic group may set up a station. See Hall, Warren mayor says atheist can't put up 'reason station' inside city hall, supra. Mayor Fouts, therefore, is not controlling the content of government speech, but rather is unconstitutionally denying a private citizen access to a public forum on the basis of the citizen's views.¹

Mayor Fouts' decision also provides preferential treatment to religion over non-religion in violation of the First Amendment's Establishment Clause. The government must remain neutral "between religion and religion, and between religion and non-religion." Epperson v. Arkansas, 393 U.S. 97, 104 (1968). Accordingly, in Texas Monthly, Inc. v. Bullock, 489 U.S. 1 (1989), the U.S. Supreme Court struck down a sales-tax exemption that was available exclusively to religious periodicals, explaining that when the government singles out religious organizations for "awards of assistance," the government "conve[y][s] a message of endorsement [of religion]' to slighted members of the community." Id. at 15 (plurality opinion) (internal brackets omitted) (quoting Corp. of Presiding Bishop v. Amos, 483 U.S. 327, 348 (1987)). Similarly, in Estate of Thornton v. Caldor, Inc., 472 U.S. 703, 710 n.9 (1985), the Supreme Court struck down a state statute that provided Sabbath observers an absolute right not to work on their Sabbath, concluding that the statute represented an unconstitutional governmental preference for Sabbath observers over "other employees who have strong and legitimate, but non-religious, reasons for wanting" a particular day off. In contrast, the Supreme Court in Walz v. Tax Comm'n, 397 U.S. 664, 673 (1970), upheld the application of a property tax exemption to churches, because the statute did not single out religious organizations for special treatment; rather, the benefit was available to "a broad class of property owned by nonprofit, quasi-public corporations." Allowing religious groups the privilege of setting up manned stations in city hall while denying the same privilege to atheist groups plainly violates these Supreme Court decisions.

¹ If the City were to instead contend that the contents of the atrium are the City's own speech, then the "Prayer Stations" would be clear violations of the Establishment Clause, which prohibits government bodies from sponsoring or promoting prayer. See, e.g., Santa Fe Indep. Sch. Dist. v. Doe, 530 U.S. 290, 305 (2000) (striking down school-sponsored prayer at football games); N.C. Civil Liberties Union v. Constangy, 947 F.2d 1145, 1146 (4th Cir. 1991) (prohibiting judge from opening court with prayer); Doe v. Vill. of Crestwood, 917 F.2d 1476, 1478-79 (7th Cir. 1990) (prohibiting city from including Catholic mass in city festival); Hall v. Bradshaw, 630 F.2d 1018, 1019-22 (4th Cir. 1980) (prohibiting inclusion of prayer on map issued by state office); Newman v. City of E. Point, 181 F. Supp. 2d 1374, 1381-82 (N.D. Ga. 2002) (prohibiting city from sponsoring prayer breakfast).

Please approve Mr. Marshall's application. Alternatively, you may comply with the Constitution by closing the forum entirely, and barring the prayer stations and other private stations, tables, and booths from city hall. Please advise us within thirty days as to how you plan to proceed. Failure to remedy this constitutional violation within that time would very likely subject the city to expensive and time-consuming litigation. If you have any questions or would like to discuss this issue further, please contact Ian Smith at (202) 466-3234 or at ismith@au.org.
