DECISION

Dear Abdiqafar Wagafe:

Thank you for submitting Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) under section 316 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).

After a thorough review of the information provided in your application for naturalization, the documents supporting your application, and your testimony during your naturalization interview, USCIS has determined that you are not eligible for naturalization. Accordingly, USCIS must deny your application for naturalization.

Generally, to qualify for naturalization, under INA 316, an applicant must:

- Be 18 years of age or older at the time of filing Form N-400;
- Be lawfully admitted for permanent residence;
- Be a lawful permanent resident for at least 5 years at the time of filing Form N-400;
- Demonstrate good moral character for at least 5 years prior to the Form N-400 filing date, and during the period leading to administration of the Oath of Allegiance;
- Have resided continuously in the United States for at least 5 years as a lawful permanent resident before filing Form N-400;
- Have resided for at least 3 months in the State or USCIS District where residency is claimed before filing Form N-400;
- Have resided continuously in the United States from the date of filing Form N-400 up to the time of administration of the Oath of Allegiance;
- Be physically present in the United States for at least 2½ years at the time of filing Form N-400;
- Demonstrate a basic knowledge of U.S. history and government;
- Demonstrate the ability to read, write, and speak words in ordinary usage in the English language; and
- Establish an attachment to the principles of the U.S. Constitution and be disposed to the good order and happiness of the United States.

L44

Statement of Facts and Analysis Including Ground(s) for Denial

On November 3, 2008, you obtained permanent resident status in immigrant classification RE6 with a retroactive date of May 24, 2007. USCIS received your Form N-400 on July 3, 2012, and on October 29, 2012, you appeared for an interview to determine your eligibility for naturalization.

At the time of your naturalization interview the Immigration Services Officer reviewed your responses to the questions on your application for naturalization and administered the naturalization test. However, the Officer was not able to complete the interview. You were unable to understand and respond to the questions on your application for naturalization even after the Officer repeated and rephrased the questions. You were not able to understand or respond meaningfully to the questions asked during your interview.

During the English portion of the naturalization test the Officer gave you three attempts to write a sentence in ordinary usage of the English language. You were unable to achieve a passing score on the English writing portion of the naturalization test.

You were therefore scheduled for a second interview on January 3, 2013.

During your second interview, you were again unable to respond to the questions on your application even after the Officer repeated and rephrased the questions for you. Therefore, you were unable to achieve a passing score on the English speaking and understanding portions of the naturalization test.

The Officer administered the English writing portion of the naturalization test again. Once more you were given three attempts to write a sentence in the English language. However, you were still unable to write a sentence in ordinary usage of the English language.

As a result, you have not demonstrated your ability to pass the educational requirements for naturalization. Therefore, unfortunately, USCIS must deny your application for naturalization. See INA 312.

If you believe that you can overcome the grounds for this denial, you may submit a request for a hearing on Form N-336, Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings, within 30 calendar days of service of this decision (33 days if this decision was mailed). See 8 CFR 336.2 (a) and 103.8(b). Without a properly filed Form N-336, this decision will become final. See INA 336.
