

Supreme Court of Texas

No. 24-0385

Greg Abbott, in his official capacity as Governor of the State of Texas; Stephanie Muth, in her official capacity as Commissioner of the Department of Family and Protective Services; and the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services,

Petitioners,

v.

Jane Doe, individually and as parent and next friend of Mary Doe, a minor; John Doe, individually and as parent and next friend of Mary Doe, a minor; and Dr. Megan Mooney,

Respondents

On Petition for Review from the Court of Appeals for the Third District of Texas

JUDGMENT

THE SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS, having heard this cause on petition for review from the Court of Appeals for the Third District, and having considered the appellate record and counsels' briefs, but without hearing oral argument under Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 59.1, concludes that the court of appeals' judgment should be reversed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, in accordance with the Court's opinion, that:

- 1) The court of appeals' judgment is reversed;
- 2) The "Order Granting Plaintiffs' Application for Temporary Injunction" signed March 11, 2022, is vacated; and

3) Each party shall bear its own costs incurred in this Court.

Copies of this judgment and the Court's opinion are certified to the Court of Appeals for the Third District and to the 353rd District Court of Travis County, Texas, for observance.

Opinion of the Court delivered Per Curiam.

Concurring opinion filed by Chief Justice Blacklock.

Justice Sullivan did not participate in the decision.
