

Supreme Court of Texas

No. 24-0384

Stephanie Muth, in her official capacity as Commissioner of the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services, and the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services,

Petitioners,

v.

Mirabel Voe, individually and as parent and next friend of Antonio Voe, a minor; Wanda Roe, individually and as parent and next friend of Tommy Roe, a minor; PFLAG, Inc.; and Adam Briggle and Amber Briggle, individually and as parents and next friends of M.B., a minor,

Respondents

On Petition for Review from the Court of Appeals for the Third District of Texas

JUDGMENT

THE SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS, having heard this cause on petition for review from the Court of Appeals for the Third District, and having considered the appellate record and counsels' briefs, but without hearing oral argument under Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 59.1, concludes that the court of appeals' judgments should be reversed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, in accordance with the Court's opinion, that:

- 1) The court of appeals' judgments are reversed;
- 2) The "Order Granting Plaintiffs Voes' and Roes' Applications for Temporary Injunction” signed July 8, 2022, and the “Order Granting PFLAG, Inc.’s and the Briggie Plaintiffs’ Application for Temporary Injunction” signed September 16, 2022, are vacated; and

3) Each party shall bear its own costs incurred in this Court.

Copies of this judgment and the Court’s opinion are certified to the Court of Appeals for the Third District and to the 459th District Court of Travis County, Texas, for observance.

Opinion of the Court delivered Per Curiam.

Concurring opinion filed by Chief Justice Blacklock.

Justice Sullivan did not participate in the decision.
