

FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

Meet with President and CEO Maya Wiley of The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights (LCCHR), September 13, 2024

Subject:

- The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights (LCCHR) invited you to meet with President and CEO Maya Wiley and a cross-section of 12-15 leaders of their member organizations to discuss issues related to: law enforcement, domestic terrorism, immigration, artificial intelligence, and election security.

Logistics:

- 1-hour virtual roundtable meeting.

Member/Principal Background:

- The LCCHR is a coalition founded in 1950 of more than 200 organizations fighting to protect, defend, and expand the rights of every single person in the United States through coalition building.
- Maya Wiley is the President and CEO of LCCHR. She is also a member of the Artificial Intelligence Safety and Security Board (AISSB).
 - You engaged with Ms. Wiley several times over the past few months at the AISSB meetings and at the Civil Rights Civil Liberties Roundtable on AI hosted by DHS.
- The LCCHR's other 15 leaders (see below and Attachment A) represent a cross-section of their member organizations which advocate for issues of democracy, justice, inclusion, and opportunity.
