

LAB Terrorism Prevention Partnerships

Intervention Resources for Patrol & Dispatch

If you encounter:

Imminent threat or indications of mobilization:

Refer to JTTF immediately. Consult your supervisor, dispatch will connect you with Michael Takamoto and Billy Gallegos/DPD intelligence unit.

No imminent threat or mobilization, but possible radicalization:

Call DPD Crisis Intervention Response Unit (CIRU) clinicians, who can accompany you and who will consult with others at DPD, CRC, and FBI.

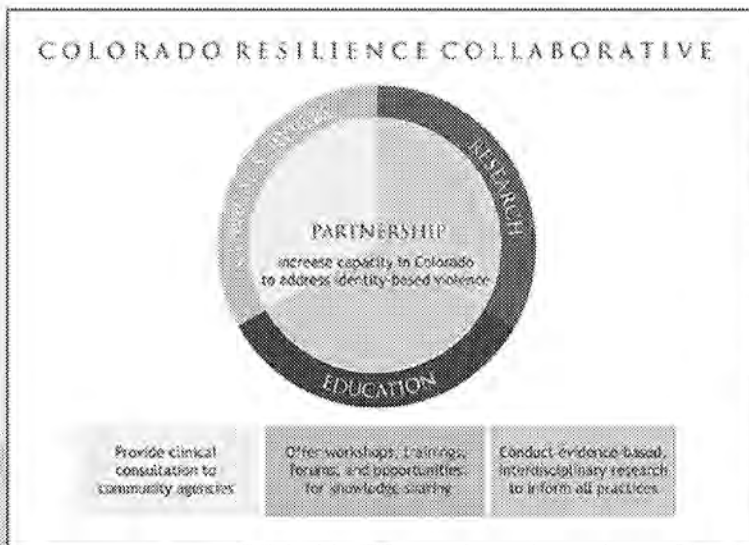

(b)(6) and (b)(6) coresponder@mhcd.org; (720) 602-8851

Community member seems concerned about someone, but refuses to share information with you, DPD clinicians, or anyone in law enforcement or government:

Leave them information about the CRC or offer to connect them to CRC directly. (303) 871-3042

The Public (Bystanders)

- K-12 Schools
- Universities
- Community Organizations
- Religious Institutions
- Social Service Providers
- Family Members
- Peers

Mental Health
Center of Denver

Colorado Resilience Collaborative (CRC)

2450 S. Vine Street Denver, CO 80208

303-871-3042

www.du.edu/gsp/resilience-collaborative