[REDACTED] The FBI and DHS urge state and local authorities to remain vigilant at public events where ideologically opposed groups congregate due to the potential that domestic extremists may co-opt the event to commit violence.

(U) Indicators

(U//~~FOUO~~) Violent extremism is a central concern for law enforcement and the Intelligence Community. Observed patterns of terrorist activity in the Homeland reinforce the need for law enforcement to be vigilant and identify individuals who are planning acts of violence. [REDACTED]

b7E -4 per FBI

[REDACTED] Any one of these activities may be insignificant on its own, but when observed in combination with other suspicious observed behaviors—particularly advocacy of violence—may constitute a basis for reporting. These activities were observed in cases of extremist mobilization to violence but are not a definite formula for predicting illegal activity. Violent extremist behaviors change and require continual reexamination.

(U//~~FOUO~~) In the course of official activities and to the extent permitted by law, police, fire, EMS, and security personnel are encouraged to report activities of a suspicious nature; however, this information should not be collected solely on constitutionally protected activities or on the basis of any racial, ethnic, religious, or other profile. DHS and security partners do not advocate interference with the rights of law-abiding citizens. If suspicious activities warranting the attention of law enforcement are observed, please contact the nearest state and major urban area fusion center, follow the state's suspicious activity reporting protocol, and inform the local FBI Field Office or JTTF.

(U) Report Suspicious Activity

(U) To report suspicious activity, law enforcement, Fire-EMS, private security personnel, and emergency managers should follow established protocols; all other personnel should call 911 or contact local law enforcement. Suspicious activity reports (SARs) will be forwarded to the appropriate fusion center and FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force for further action. For more information on the Nationwide SAR Initiative, visit <http://nsi.ncirc.gov/resources.aspx>.
