*Respondents-Appellants.

A poll having been conducted and a majority of the active judges of the Court having voted in favor of rehearing this appeal in banc, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this appeal be heard in banc.¹ See Fed. R. App. P. 40(c). Scheduling information will be forthcoming.

The in banc proceedings shall be paused and held in abeyance in the event that the Supreme Court in this or another matter grants certiorari on the following question which is presented in this case: whether the district court lacked subject matter jurisdiction to grant habeas relief to the petitioner in light of any provision of 8 U.S.C. § 1252.

Joseph F. Bianco, Circuit Judge, took no part in the consideration or decision of this matter.

FOR THE COURT:

Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe, Clerk

The image shows a handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe". The signature is written over a circular official seal. The seal has a red outer ring with the words "UNITED STATES" at the top and "COURT OF APPEALS" at the bottom. Inside the ring, the words "SECOND CIRCUIT" are written in blue. There are small stars on either side of the text "SECOND CIRCUIT".

* The Clerk of Court is directed to amend the case caption to conform to the above.

¹ Chief Judge Raymond J. Lohier, Jr. previously recused himself, but based on further research and inquiry into the recusal, and after consulting with the Judicial Conference Committee on Codes of Conduct, he has concluded that his prior recusal was unnecessary and that he is not disqualified from participating in this matter.
