26 Civ. 4641 (KPF)

ORDER

KATHERINE POLK FAILLA, District Judge:

The Court has received the DOJ Defendants' motion for a stay of the deadline to respond to Plaintiffs' Complaint. (Dkt. #80). The motion for a stay of the response deadline is GRANTED in light of the interlocutory appeal.

In addition, the Court has received the DOJ Defendants' motion to stay the preliminary injunction pending appeal as well as supporting papers. (Dkt. #81-82). The motion to stay the preliminary injunction pending appeal is DENIED. What the DOJ Defendants seek is a complete subversion of the Court's decision to grant the preliminary injunction in the first place. Allowing a stay of the preliminary injunction at this time would upend the status quo and lead to the very irreparable harm that the preliminary injunction was designed to prevent. This the Court will not do.

The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate the pending motions at docket entries 80 and 81.

SO ORDERED.
