Defendants.

_____/

ORDER SETTING PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION
HEARING AND BRIEFING SCHEDULE

This Court has considered, without hearing, the parties' joint motion for briefing schedule and for extension of word limits. ECF No. 41. The joint motion is GRANTED. Accordingly, this Court adopts the proposed schedule set out in ECF No. 41.

Defendants' response to the motion for preliminary injunction and any counter declarations in support thereof are due on or before October 12, 2026. Plaintiffs' reply in support of their motion for preliminary injunction, and any supplemental declarations in support of the reply brief are due on or before October 16, 2026. The hearing on Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary injunction is set for Thursday, October 22, 2026, at 10:00 a.m. (ET).

The parties' request to extend the word limits is GRANTED. Plaintiffs' opening brief may not exceed 11,000 words.¹ Defendants' opposition brief may not exceed 11,000 words. And Plaintiffs' reply brief may not exceed 5,500 words.

Finally, the scheduling conference set for October 8, 2026, is CANCELED given that the parties have agreed to and this Court has adopted the proposed schedule as set forth above.

SO ORDERED on October 7, 2026.

s/Mark E. Walker
United States District Judge

¹ This Court recognizes that Plaintiffs have already filed their opening brief and it complies with this extended word limit.
