

Exhibit C

WHEREAS, a terrorist organization, pursuant to section 874.03(7), Florida Statutes, is an activity that involves a violent act or an act dangerous to human life which is a violation of the criminal laws of this state or the United States and is intended to: intimidate, injure, or coerce a civilian population; influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion, or affect the conduct of government through destruction of property, assassination, murder, kidnapping, or aircraft piracy, and

WHEREAS, the Society of Muslim Brothers, commonly known as the Muslim Brotherhood, intends to carry out Jihad across the globe, meaning that the Muslim Brotherhood would use whatever means necessary, including violence, to accomplish its objective of forcing their system of belief on others across the globe, and

WHEREAS, leaders of the Muslim Brotherhood have publicly and repeatedly expressed their intention to establish a caliphate, a government under the control of an Islamic leader, and these intentions reject all secular law, advocating the need for Islamist ideology, and

WHEREAS, the Muslim Brotherhood uses in its logo words from the Koran, meaning “make ready,” as in to make ready for battle, and

WHEREAS, the creed of the Muslim Brotherhood is, “Allah is our objective, the Prophet is our leader, the Koran is our constitution, jihad is our way, and dying in the way of Allah is our highest hope,” and the Muslim Brotherhood requires its members to submit to its ideology, and

WHEREAS, leaders of the Muslim Brotherhood are concerned of the decline of Islam and advocate for a return to the teachings of the Koran and Muhammad and have publicly written about the return to an observant Islamic base to support the goals of the Muslim Brotherhood and the necessity of those goals being spread in the United States, and

WHEREAS, Muslim Brotherhood ideology rejects American values such as individual liberty, liberty, freedom, equality, and democracy, and

WHEREAS, the Muslim Brotherhood has been operating in the United States since at least the 1960’s, and

WHEREAS, in papers published by members of the Muslim Brotherhood, the goals of the Muslim Brotherhood in the United States are laid out in detail including, establishing an effective and stable Islamic Movement led by the Muslim Brotherhood, adopting Muslims’ causes domestically and globally, expanding the observant Muslim base, unifying and directing Muslims’ efforts, presenting Islam as a civilizational alternative, and supporting the establishment of the global Islamic state wherever it is, and

WHEREAS, the Muslim Brotherhood has created purportedly legitimate front organizations and political organizations to funnel money through for terrorist activity, and

WHEREAS, the federal government has designated branches of the Muslim Brotherhood as terrorist organizations, including the branches that have carried out violence on American citizens, and

WHEREAS, Hamas is an affiliate of the Muslim Brotherhood, and started by the Muslim Brotherhood in 1987, and has received support from the Muslim Brotherhood, and

WHEREAS, the primary goal of Hamas is the extinction of the State of Israel, and believes that all Muslims must carry out jihad against Israel, and

WHEREAS, Hamas was designated by the United States government as a foreign terrorist organization on October 8, 1997, and

WHEREAS, on October 7, 2023, Hamas murdered over 1,200 men, women, and children in Israel, including 46 Americans, and took 254 hostages back with them to Gaza, including 12 Americans, and

WHEREAS, organizations affiliated with Hamas have had active fundraising arms in the United States, with direct oversight from the Muslim Brotherhood, and funds raised in the United States have been sent to support Hamas terrorist actions in the Middle East, and

WHEREAS, the Palestine Committee, the Muslim Brotherhood affiliated organization created to support Hamas in the United States and with goals to “increase the financial and moral support for Hamas” and focus on “the savagery of the Jews,” oversaw three front organizations designed to raise funds for Hamas terrorist activities, and

WHEREAS, later, the Palestine Committee founded the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR) in the United States in 1994, and

WHEREAS, one of the aims in the creation of CAIR was to disrupt the normalization in relations that had started to occur between Israel and other Arab countries, calling it the “Confrontation work plan,” and

WHEREAS, CAIR works actively to influence the United States government and American institutions on issues related to Islam and Muslims, and its mission is to “enhance understanding of Islam, protect civil rights, promote justice, and empower American Muslims,” and

WHEREAS, CAIR was created as a front organization to conceal ties to Islamic Extremist groups, with affiliated individuals stating that it was meant to be “an official

U.S. cover representing the Islamic community,” and was founded by individuals affiliated with the Muslim Brotherhood, and

WHEREAS, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has suspended all formal contracts with CAIR, and

WHEREAS, in a large terrorism-financing case, CAIR was designated as an unindicted co-conspirator by the United States government, and the court “found ample evidence to establish the association” of CAIR with terrorist organizations, United States v. Holy Land Found. for Relief & Dev., No. 3:04-cv-240, 2009 WL 10680203, at *7 (N.D. Tex. July 1, 2009), and

WHEREAS, individuals associated with CAIR have been convicted of conspiracy to provide, and the provision of, material support to designated terrorist organizations, and

WHEREAS, since its creation, CAIR has provided support for individuals convicted of aiding terrorist organizations and funding terrorist organizations, and

WHEREAS, CAIR and its leadership have repeatedly and publicly claimed that Israel should be attacked and offered praise for the violent and inhumane actions of Hamas on October 7, and
