Thank you – should we ask NYPD?

I have looked in my files and the only thing I can find so far are these talking points for former DCJS Commissioner Denise O'Donnell and DMV Commissioner Swarts at a 2008 LPR conference. The speeches have statistics.

I have also send an e-mail to DCJS to see if they have a white paper or something similar and will let you know. I do not recall anything.

Chuck,

Do you have any or know where there may be a study, report, white paper or evaluation on the use of license plate readers? Region 5 is especially interested in the NYC experience. Point me in the right direction, if you prefer.

Thanks,
Tom
