Subject: . . . So what's your solution?

I heartily endorse ANY attempt at getting the financial institutions that I've supported unwillingly for the last four years to finally step up and take just a teeny part of the hit that the rest of us live with every day.

All you guys at FHFA ever do is bail out the banks....with OUR money. How about some help for the people who pay your salaries, not the ones who wine you and dine you... just asking.

Sincerely,
Geoff DeWan
