

From: roffhaus@comcast.net
Sent: Thursday, August 09, 2012 7:18 PM
To: Eminent Domain OGC
Subject: Proposal to seize mortgages using eminent domain

I think this proposal by Mortgage Research Partners while appealing to cities is a Trojan horse loaded with unintended side effects. First of all I doubt that it is constitutional. Secondly it will undermine the whole mortgage marketplace with uncertainty. In my opinion its just another scheme by the financial industry to make a buck at someone else's expense for doing nothing productive. Please stand firm against this proposal.

Richard Offhaus
Montgomery, Illinois
When undergoing difficult circumstances: "Pray and let God worry." - Martin Luther