The ACLU Congressional Scorecard evaluates votes by members of Congress on key legislation affecting civil liberties and civil rights since January 2017.

The ACLU’s Washington Legislative Office took a position on every piece of legislation covered by this scorecard, including those receiving votes in the full House, the full Senate, and several House and Senate committees. Descriptions of the measures are included in the appendices. The scorecard gives each member of Congress an overall percentage number representing how well their votes align with ACLU positions and values.

The start of the 115th Congress coincided with the start of the Trump administration, which has brought new attacks on civil rights and civil liberties. That reality makes it more important than ever that Congress fulfills its duty as a check on the executive branch and as a lawmaking body. Members’ votes represent their willingness to stand up and guard the rights that are fundamental to our democracy. And we will continue to hold them accountable for their votes.

METHODOLOGY

This scorecard consists of 36 House votes and 22 Senate votes on issues of concern for the ACLU. These votes took place between Jan. 3, 2017 and May 18, 2018. The percentage scores indicate how members of Congress voted in accordance with the ACLU’s positions on legislation. Most of these votes were floor votes in the House and the Senate. Also included are some votes in committee – eight in the House and one in the Senate – that were important in the advancement of legislation. In some cases, we included crucial procedural votes, like a cloture vote, as well as the final passage vote.

A member received 1 point for a vote that aligns with the ACLU’s position and 0 points for a vote that does not align with our position. The percentage score represents the sum value of a member’s votes divided by the number of votes that member cast. Missed votes were not calculated in a member’s score.

FLOOR VOTES
1	65	1/24/2017	On Passage	H.R. 7		No Taxpayer Funding for Abortion and Abortion Insurance Full Disclosure Act of 2017	This legislation would make harmful, discriminatory abortion coverage restrictions permanent and interfere with private health insurance coverage for abortion. (ACLU Position: Opposed)
2	76	2/2/2017	On Passage	H.J. Res 37		A joint resolution disapproving the rule submitted by the Department of Defense, the General Services Administration, and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration relating to the Federal Acquisition Regulation.	This legislation would overturn the regulations implementing the 2014 Fair Pay and Safe Workplaces executive order, which require federal agencies to contract only with companies that comply with workplace safety laws, sexual harassment laws, anti-discrimination laws, and minimum wage and overtime laws. (ACLU Position: Opposed)

3	77	2/2/2017	On Passage	H.J. Res 40		A joint resolution disapproving the rule submitted by the Social Security Administration relating to Implementation of the NICS Improvement Amendments Act of 2007.	This legislation would overturn a federal rule to add the names of Social Security disability benefit recipients to the national background check system used during gun purchases. In contrast to well-crafted measures that respect civil liberties while reducing gun violence, the rule in question raises due process concerns and reinforces the harmful and unsupported stereotype that people with mental disabilities, a vast and diverse group of citizens, are violent. (ACLU Position: Supported)
4	84	2/7/2017	On Passage	H.J. Res 57		A joint resolution disapproving the rule submitted by the Department of Education relating to accountability and State plans under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965	This legislation would, in effect, overturn critical protections for historically marginalized students, including students of color, students with disabilities, and students who are English learners, immigrants, girls, Native American, LGBTQ, or low-income students. (ACLU Position: Opposed)

33	1	11/8/2017	On Agreeing to the Amendment	H.R. 3989	Poe Amendment #3	USA Liberty Act - Rep. Poe Amendment	This amendment offered in the House Judiciary Committee would help close the "backdoor search loophole" for a key surveillance provision of the FISA Amendments Act, which allows the U.S. government to collect foreign intelligence information but sweeps in communications by U.S. persons. 36	2	5/9/2018	Final Passage	H.R. 5682		The First Step Act	This legislation, considered in the House Judiciary Committee, would attempt to establish "back-end" reform to the criminal justice system, for those currently incarcerated, in an attempt to reduce recidivism. However, the bill would be unlikely to achieve meaningful reform, and additionally does not include any "front-end" reform - changes to sentencing laws that eliminate mandatory minimums, restore judicial discretion, reduce the national prison population, and mitigate disparate impacts on communities of color. (ACLU Position: Opposed)
