

DO NOT DESTROY
FOIPA # 1144839

Course Title: Official title of program
BASIC INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM OPERATIONS (BITOPS)
Course Number:		Classification: Highest level classification of program and any controls
Audience:	Grade/Rank (if appropriate)	Occupation	Agency
		AGENT & IA	FBI
Course Length: Seat time		Course Provider: Organization who built it
5 days
Course Description: What this course is about, teaching objectives, teaching style, unique aspects, etc.
BITOPS provides basic instruction on a variety of IT topics, to include Arab/Islamic History, Arab Cultural Issues, Foreign Terrorist Organizations, Terrorist Financing, Case Management, Intelligence Tools, Criminal Tools, and IT Criminal and Intelligence Case Studies.
Learning Objectives: What the student will be able to accomplish at the end of the program Instructors include Agents with extensive experience in IT investigations and investigative techniques, FBI legal experts, IAs, as well as cultural topical experts from the academic community and/or other U.S. Government agencies.
Learning Objectives: • Understand the history of Muslim Culture • Understand the origin of Islam • Explain cultural, religious, and ethnic beliefs that identify and relate to Islamist terrorism • Explain how the thinking of these ideologues inspire militant organizations • [REDACTED] • Understand the development of Al-Qa'ida, Muslim Brotherhood, Hamas and Hizballah • Identify key Al-Qa'ida, Muslim Brotherhood, Hamas and Hizballah members and their roles within their organizations • Understand Al-Qa'ida, Muslim Brotherhood, Hamas and Hizballah's tactics and techniques • [REDACTED] from case studies • [REDACTED]

b7E

- [Redacted]
- Understand the Attorney General's Guidelines for FBI National Security
- Understand the USA Patriot Act
- Explain the roles and responsibilities of:
 1. [Redacted]
 2. [Redacted]
 3. [Redacted]
 4. [Redacted]
 5. [Redacted]

b7E

Competencies: