

YOUR RIGHTS AS AN ARIZONA VOTER

As a registered voter in the state of Arizona, you have the following rights:

1. You have the right to have your vote accurately counted.
2. You have the right to cast a vote if you are in line at the time the polls close at 7 p.m.
3. You have the right to vote in all the races on your ballot or in the races that you choose. You are NOT required to cast a vote in every race or on every ballot question.
4. Proposition 200 mandates that voters present identification at the polls. Only one photo identification, such as a driver's license or tribal enrollment card, is required. Without a photo, two forms of identification are required specifying a voter's current name and address. Examples include a utility bill, vehicle registration or bank statement.
5. You have the right to cast a provisional ballot if your name is not on the rolls or you have moved to a different address within the county and didn't notify elections officials. To vote by provisional ballot, you are still required to provide identification verifying your name and address to ensure you're in the correct voting precinct. The provisional ballot will NOT count until the County Recorder verifies that you voted in your correct precinct. You have a right to know if the provisional ballot was counted. [A.R. S. § 16-584 (F)].
6. You have the right to be provided with written instructions (through model devices, signs or other means) on how to use the voting equipment and how to mark your ballot.
7. You have the right to a demonstration of the voting equipment prior to casting a ballot.
8. You have the right to personal assistance in voting if needed. This includes both the right to have a poll worker assist you and the right to bring someone of your choice, such as a friend or family member, into the voting booth to assist you if you need it.
9. You have the right to assistance if you need help voting due to a disability. This includes the right to bring someone with you to assist.
10. You have the right to receive voting materials and request assistance in a language other than English if you live in certain counties. You have the right to receive Spanish ballots and other voting materials in Cochise, Greenlee, Maricopa, Pima, Santa Cruz and Yuma counties; Apache materials in Apache, Gila, Graham, Navajo and Pinal counties; Navajo materials in Apache, Coconino, and Navajo counties; Pueblo materials in Apache, Coconino, and Navajo counties; Tohono O'Odham materials in Maricopa, Pima and Pinal counties; Yaqui materials in Pima County; and Yuman materials in Yuma county.

11. You have the right to receive a replacement ballots if you make a mistake prior to casting your ballot. If you make a mistake, start over with a fresh ballot! Do NOT attempt to correct your error on the original ballot.
12. You have the right to take time off from work to vote on Election Day without penalty if your regular work shift starts before 9 a.m. and ends after 4 p.m. Your employer has the right to set the time you may take for voting.
13. You have the right to be informed, in advance, of your precinct location and its hours of operation. If you do not know where your precinct is on Election Day, you may call your County Recorder or visit his or her office in order to find out. If you arrive at the wrong polling place for your precinct, you may call or ask a poll worker to call the County Recorder in order to find out the correct one.
14. You have the right to vote by provisional ballot in your new precinct if you have moved within the same county but have not yet registered at your new address. Your poll worker must allow you to vote after you fill out an address verification form. If you move to another Arizona county and wish to be eligible to vote, you must register in that county.
15. You have the right to vote free from coercion, pressure or intimidation by poll workers, elections officers, campaigners or any other person.
16. You have the right to vote free from intrusion on your privacy during the voting process. Interruptions should occur only at your request, such as when you ask for assistance.
17. You have the right to ask questions or raise concerns. Alert a poll worker and the ACLU of Arizona immediately if you have any problems voting or notice any irregularities with the system.
18. You have the right to receive notice from the County Recorder's Office before any determination that you are not eligible to vote. You have the right to contest any inaccuracies that led to that determination.

If you are refused the right to vote solely because you failed to bring identification to the polling place,
