My colleague from Boston will be in town next week. If still interested in meeting, please let me know what days/times may work.

Thanks.

Hope this finds you well. As you may have heard, DHS is putting someone in Boston similar to my position out here in LA who will among other things, lead CVE related initiatives for the Department in that region. He will be spending next week with me and if you are interested I wanted to offer you an opportunity to meet him and brief him. Please let me know if you would be interested.
