Lauren,

A couple things. I am trying to put together a small tech panel for that time slot. Jon Keidan could come and speak on digital marketing and early stage investing, and I'm trying to get Henrik Werlden of Prehype, a startup incubator, to come speak about testing ideas and scaling companies. Jon and I are still working to confirm that Henrik can actually make it in person for the 14th from 1-2pm and I'll let you know when I hear.

I also have teed up Ben Schwerin who leads Snapchat's partnerships for a discussion. The question is whether we have time during the meeting on the 14th to have him call in like the Facebook call last time, or if we should have that as a separate call. Let me know.

Best,
Joel

Great! Would 1-2pm work for the panel on 4/14? Thanks again,
