

Homeland
Security

NTER National Threat Evaluation and Reporting Program

National Threat Evaluation and Reporting (NTER) Program

BEHAVIORAL THREAT ASSESSMENT INTEGRATION PROGRAM BRIEF

~~UNCLASSIFIED~~

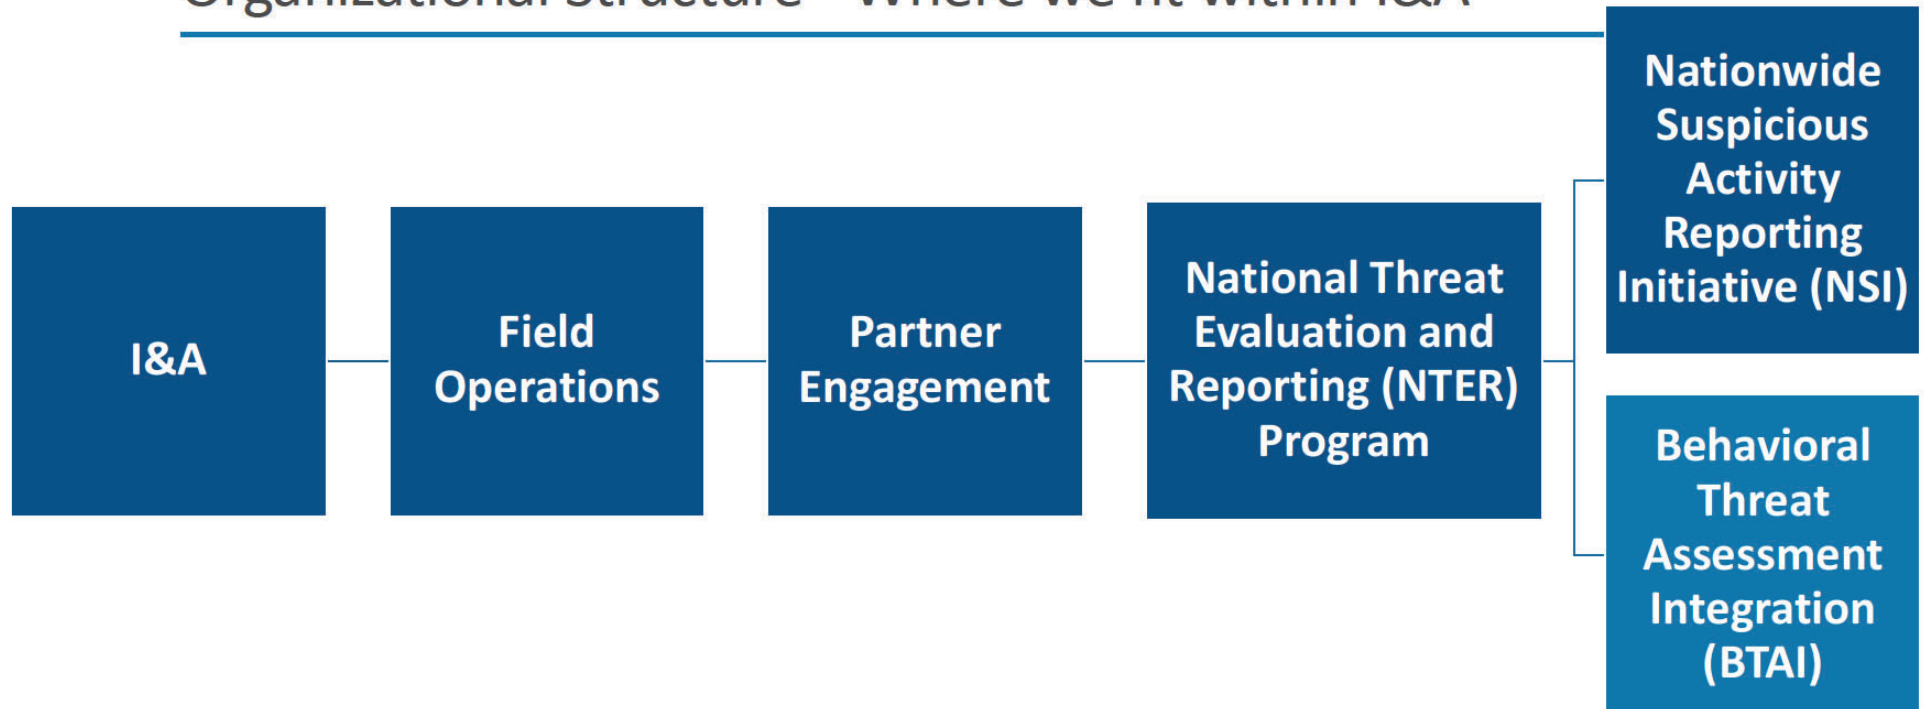

REL0000002280.0001

Briefing Topics

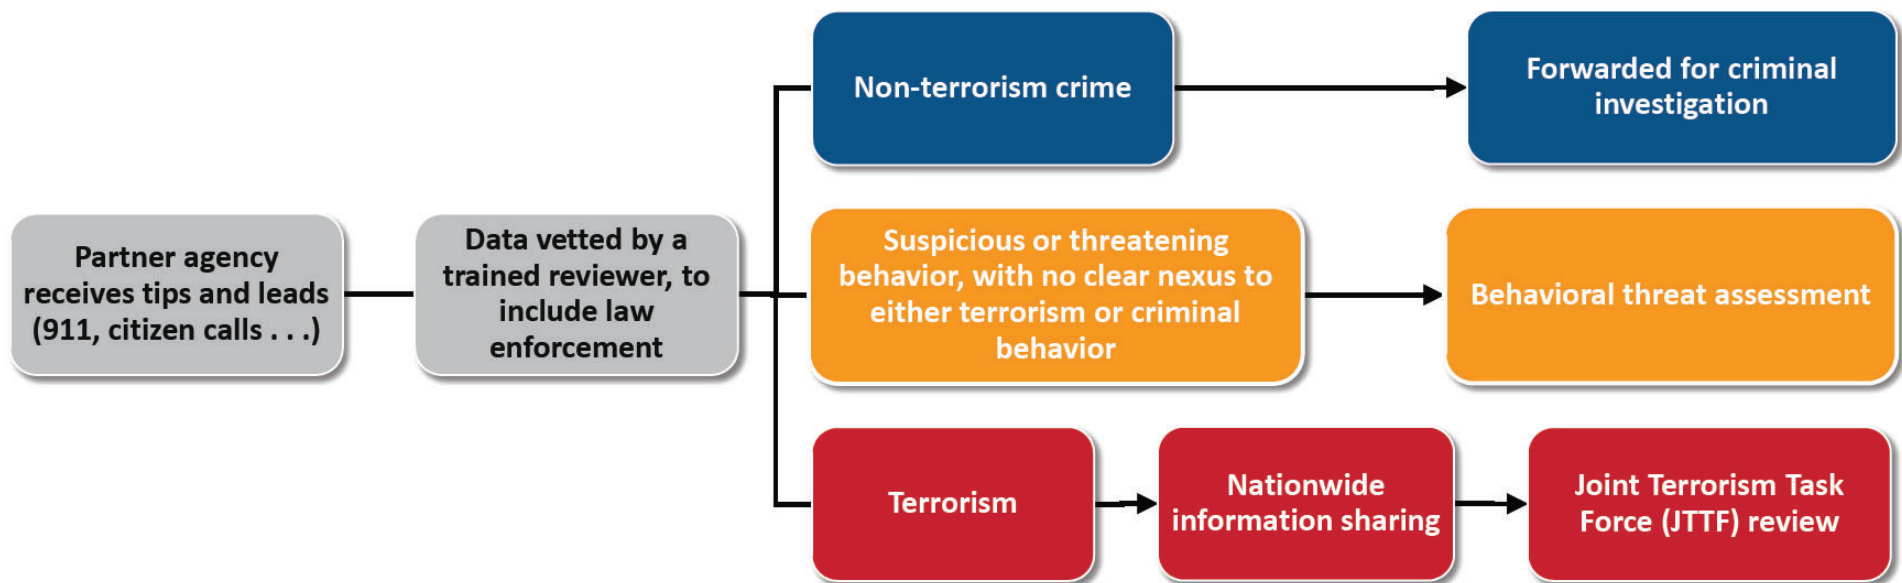

- Organizational Structure - Where we fit within I&A
- Our Role - External
- Master Trainer Program (MTP)
 - Instructor Development Threat Evaluation and Reporting Course (ID-TERC)
 - TERC Variations
- Technical Support & Information Sharing
- Continuing Education

Organizational Structure - Where we fit within I&A

Organizational Structure – Where we Fit in I&A

Our Role - External

Targeted Violence Prevention

- Master Trainer Program
- ID-TERC
- TERC Variations
- Technical Support & Information Sharing
- Continuing Education

Master Trainer Program (MTP)

- Train-the-Trainer Model
- National Network of Master Trainers
 - Workplace Violence Prevention
 - Insider Threat
 - Public Safety Partners / Law Enforcement
 - Schools Safety

Instructor Development - Threat Evaluation and Reporting Course (ID-TERC)

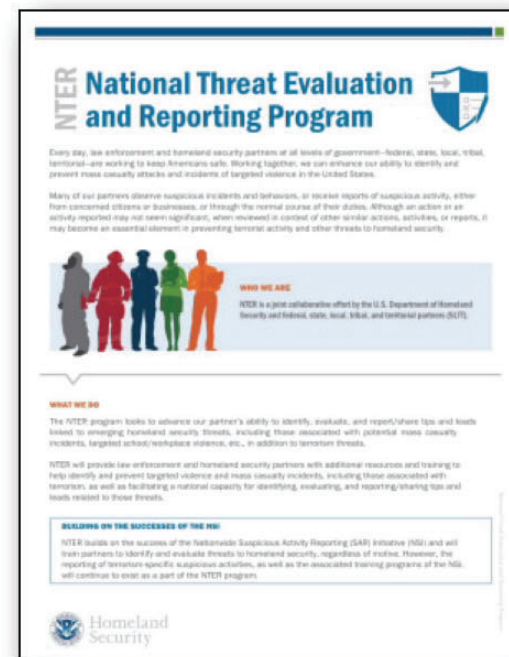

Train federal, state, local, tribal, and territorial (F/SLTT) homeland security partners on applying behavioral threat assessment approaches, as it relates to tips and leads

Teaches students to utilize a four-step threat assessment model to identify, investigate, assess, and manage an individual who presents behaviors of concern

Ensures all participants are equipped with the necessary tools to empower others in their communities to identify and report potential threats

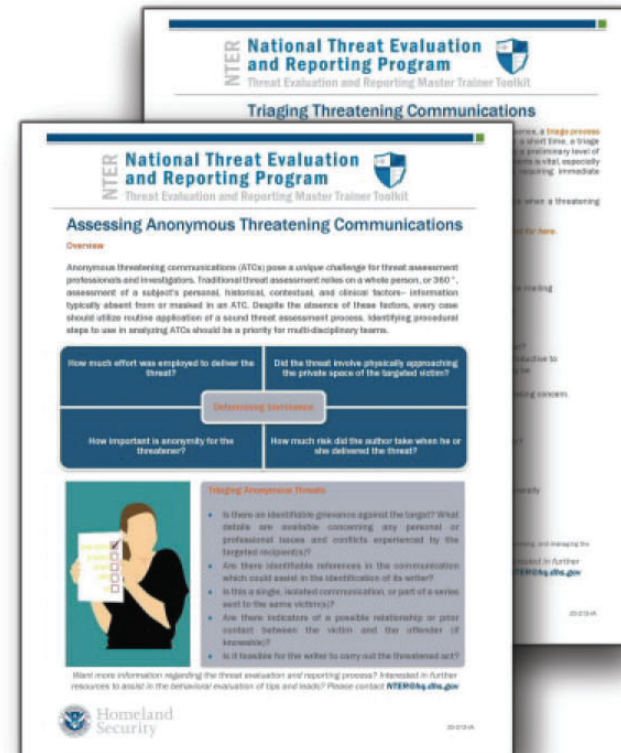

Technical Support & Information Sharing

- Partners & Subject Matter Experts
- Professional Organizations
 - NaBITA
 - ATAP
- Toolkits
- Marketing Materials

Continuing Education

- Webinars
- Toolkits
- Instructor Development Training

Questions?