Matt: edits to these letters attached.

ESEC: let's also include thank you notes for the USSS support we received in the same folder. Names of the agents:

- 1) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
- 2)
- 3)
- 4)
- 5)

We can use same text as we did for Germany.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DEPUTY SECRETARY

From:

Alan D. Bersin

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Alan Bersin".

Assistant Secretary for International Affairs and Chief Diplomatic Officer

SUBJECT:

Ottawa Trip Thank You Letters
(WF 1017585)

Context: You visited Ottawa, Canada on April 22, 2014. You had meetings with U.S. Ambassador Bruce Heyman, Privy Council Office official David Moloney, Canadian Council of Chief Executives CEO John Manley, Deputy Minister of Public Safety Francois Guimont, Deputy Minister of Transport Canada Louis Levesque, and Deputy Minister of Citizenship and Immigration Canada Anita Biguzs. You also toured the preclearance facility at the Ottawa airport with CBP's Shanna Roberts. The attached letters thank each of the individuals named above for your meetings with them.

Coordination: These letters were coordinated with and cleared by the Office of the General Counsel as well as by CBP Acting Assistant Commissioner John Wagner and USCIS Deputy Associate Director Jennifer Higgins, both of whom accompanied you on the trip.

OGC/Chief Counsel Coordination: These letters were cleared by Prudence Carr in the Office of the General Counsel.

Timeliness: These letters were provided to the Executive Secretariat five business days following your return to Washington, D.C.
