D. Secretariat:

A separate response has been forwarded to the poc listed below, via NIPRNET.

That response will state to the effect:

ADS&CI is currently involved in planning for the implementation of eGuardian. ADS&CI participates in various working groups that are addressing this issue. The various offices within ADS&CI that would be involved in implementation of eGuardian have determined that at this time, implementation can be accomplished with existing resources. Consequently no funding estimate to support implementation is being provided.

Questions or concerns may be passed to the undersigned.

If you require an actual copy of the response, please advise and we will scan and forward.

FROM: Michael C. H. McDaniel, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for HD Strategy & Force Planning, Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Homeland Defense

TO: DIRNSA

BACKGROUND: The Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for HD Strategy & Force Planning is requesting NSA's coordination on the attached action memorandum that outlines background on the eGuardian system and proposed implementation details.

The eGuardian system, which is FBI-owned and maintained, provides an unclassified, secure web-based capability to report suspicious activity reporting's and will contribute to our overall force protection threat information structure.

Their request for coordination is to maintain transparency of the overall process and to provide everyone an opportunity to review funding information contained within the action memorandum. Funding details contained within the memorandum only address FBI resource requirements. Request you provide a funding estimate in support of NSA's plan to implement the system through NSA members on the eGuardian working group.

ACTION: Please review and provide NSA's coordination and the funding estimate.

SUSPENSE: 29 March 2010

FORMAT: Respond direct to [redacted] via e-mail, at [redacted]@osd.mil. Please cc the D Secretariat so this action may be closed. Please note that copies of responses received in the D Secretariat after the above suspense date will be carried as overdue.

Thanks,
Jennifer
