Yes it does! I was planning to invite David Lewis, [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and you and me. Does that cover everybody you want involved?
There are several pilot projects (both state and city) involved in the SAR Lab too, but [REDACTED] suggested that we not include them on this call, and maybe do a follow-up call with them next week.

Thanks,

Hi Tom – I am coordinating the Hands-on Learning Labs for the NFCC. [REDACTED] mentioned that you wanted to discuss the SAR lab and how it should run, and perhaps eGuardian's presentation in particular. [REDACTED] suggested that we convene a conference call with you, David Lewis, [REDACTED] IIR staff, and whomever else you might want to include, to discuss this. If you agree, please let me know when you are available for the call, and who else you would want to participate, and I'll set it up.

FYI, the participants in the SAR Lab are as follows:

Miami-Dade Police Department
Los Angeles Police Department
New York State Police
BJA SAR Team
eGuardian

Thanks,
[REDACTED]
