That makes sense to me, Pat. It's my understanding that the FBI has already seen this document. Isn't that correct, Tom? [REDACTED]

I have included 3 versions of the eG PIA (all with my second set of changes and today's changes to reference ISE-SARs included). The first includes all redlines and comments, the second included just the redlines (comments removed), and the third is a clean version of the revised eG PIA with all changes included.
