Yeah, these memos are very popular right now - they just did one on meth and before that on gangs. They carry the effect of temporary general orders (b)(5) (b)(5) per JMD

(b)(5) (b)(5)
 (b)(5)

Good luck today - make 'em know that we respect their role "on the front lines" and are their to make sure they get an update on what we are doing. We touched on this when we last went to the NAC in the spring....

Pat/Jim: Based on Paul's response, it looks like this is the same thing that you were talking about this morning. I plan to meet with Paul next Monday to discuss the RISS related issues in more detail.

Oh, here is the memo we discussed - please keep as close hold, it is still very much a draft and likely to be changed.

Thanks.
