You have the right to appeal any denials in this release. Appeals should be directed in writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy, U.S. Department of Justice, 1425 New York Ave., NW, Suite 11050, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001. Your appeal must be received by OIP within sixty (60) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. The envelope and the letter should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

The enclosed material is from the main investigative file(s) in which the subject(s) of your request was the focus of the investigation. Our search located additional references, in files relating to other individuals, or matters, which may or may not be about your subject(s). Our experience has shown, when ident, references usually contain information similar to the information processed in the main file(s). Because of our significant backlog, we have given priority to processing only the main investigative file(s).

If you want the references, you must submit a separate request for them in writing, and they will be reviewed at a later date, as time and resources permit.

See additional information which follows.

Sincerely yours,

David M. Hardy

Enclosure(s)

The enclosed documents represent the second interim release for this matter.

By letter dated July 27, 2010, you requested a fee waiver. Requests for fee waivers are determined on a case by case basis. See 5 U.S.C. 522(a)(4)(A)(iii). See also Nat'l Sec. Archive v. DOD, 808 F.2d 1381, 1383 (D.C. Cir. 1989). The burden is on the requester to show that the statutory requirements for a fee waiver have been met.

You have requested that search, review and duplication fees be waived because disclosure of the information sought in the above FOIA request will "significantly contribute to public understanding of the FBI's collection and mapping of racial and ethnic data in local communities." You have represented that the ACLU of Tennessee "plans to disseminate widely to the public records disclosed as a result of this FOIA request." You state that the ACLU of Tennessee disseminates information through newsletters, reports, and its website at www.aclu-tn.org.

I have considered your request, the materials processed in response to it, and applicable law. Your request for a fee waiver is granted as to search and duplication fees. The ACLU of Tennessee is not subject to review fees so no adjudication of that aspect of the fee request is necessary.
