

International Terrorism
Intermediate
Interview and Interrogation
(ITI3)

May 17-21, 2010

b7E

[redacted] is to be administratively located in the FBI – doesn't this mean that it will have a law enforcement focus?

b7E

Response:

- No. [redacted]
[redacted] That said, the interagency group that recommended [redacted]

- The FBI is a member of the Intelligence Community. It has an intelligence mission that it well understands, even while it is also capable of bringing law enforcement tools to bear.

- [redacted]

b7E

[redacted]

Response:

- No. [redacted]
[redacted]
- [redacted]
- [redacted]

b7E

Why was [redacted] oversight affect Congressional oversight?

Response:

- [redacted]

b7E

- It is still being worked out precisely how Congressional oversight will work for the [redacted]

b7E

What is the FBI's policy on interrogation methods?

Response:

- FBI policy is that no attempt be made to obtain a statement by force, threats, or promises.
We use the same interview and interrogation strategies inside and outside the United States

b7E

Response:

- By Executive Order and policy [redacted]

b7E

Response:

- [redacted]
- [redacted]

b7E

Information obtained from: Sen. Asst. Aaron Zebley, DOJ
Information approved by: AG Valerie Caproni, OGC
Date: 1/18/2010