Title: ASSESSMENT CONCERNING:

b7E

Synopsis: [REDACTED]

Details: Attached article entitled "Inspector General: Red Tape Slowing Stimulus," (CALIFORNIAWatchBlog) dated January 4, 2009, reports that there is a backlog of construction projects due to a layer of bureaucracy for historic preservation. By law the State of California's Office of Historic Preservation is required to sign off-off before construction projects begin. Due to the increased volume of ARRA projects-there is a two month backlog which is continually growing as more projects advance forward. Laura Chick, State of California Inspector General in charge of monitoring ARRA funds has recommended "modifying" furloughs for key state personnel,
