SSA [REDACTED] and I have just recently learned that [REDACTED] has left San Francisco for Headquarters. We regret not being able to say our farewells.

(S)

I understand that as of last week she had not been replaced, but things may have changed since then. Will you keep us informed, either via this email address or by our office Outlook system, when [REDACTED] replacement reports on duty so that we can make contact with him or her. As you know, SSA [REDACTED] is the supervisor of the [REDACTED]
