Phil, Glad you enjoyed the wine. [redacted] will sign you up for the Cline Wine Club when she gets to work on the 25th. We would definitely be interested in doing the 5:00 (2:00 pst) brief for the boss. This Thursday I start receiving

[redacted] but we should have something for you and the boss by the beginning of next month. Joe

On the wine side: Just finished up the two reds you gave me during the trip. Very good -- probably richer than most of what I get here, maybe because they are better quality. Had them this weekend -- we got about eight inches of snow, and I cranked up the fireplace and read a book with a glass of red (or two). Life does not get much better. I have not yet tried the white. Meanwhile, please tee me up for the Ford family wine delivery program. Here's the address and credit card info:

(S) On the work side: you may recollect that I mentioned to you when I was out there that we have changed the nightly brief for the Director. [redacted]

(S) [redacted] No requirement, but if you're interested, we'll schedule.

See you in two weeks. I have put together the notes from the ASAC visit last week -- the "script" for the SAC conference -- and [redacted] has it for review. Keep the wine flowing. Later, Mudd.
