ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED  HEREIW IS UNCLASSIFIED  Not sure what then the computers will entail, but we shall see.  The light of the permissions users will have on the computers is learning toward giving admin privileges only to IT specialists in each field office with more restrictives rights to the requirements with them.  Borry for sending this to everyone, but with the short deadline, I need to use the shotgun approach and hope at least one person in each office gets back to me!
