For background purposes, outreach efforts conducted during the past year by both writer and SA [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted] until such time as the writer met with [redacted] and submitted his name for the SFCA. As a key member of the San Ramon PD Community Outreach Program, [redacted] helped facilitate an introduction with the 2010-2011 [redacted] on 10/01/10 during the SRVIC's Annual Food Drive in support of the Contra Costa and Solano Counties Food Banks.

[redacted] was afforded a brief overview of the FBI's Community Outreach Program, its initiatives such as the SF FBI Citizens Academy, the National Child Identification Program, the Community Relations Executive Seminar Training (CREST) Program and the San Francisco Division's continued partnerships with local and state law enforcement agencies such as the San Ramon PD to help educate the public about useful programs and resources for crime prevention and reporting. Other members of the SRVIC who were introduced to the writer were [redacted]

Follow-up contacts with the SRVIC through [redacted] during the week of 10/08/10 revealed their interest in implementing the National Child Identification Program (Child Inkless Fingerprinting kits) for their weekend educational classes for the SRVIC's children. [redacted] passed on [redacted] and [redacted] request for about 250 Child ID Inkless Fingerprint kits. A separate follow-up meeting with [redacted] is being coordinated by [redacted] to help explain the National Child ID Program to SRVIC parents during one of their upcoming meetings. Due to the limited supply of the kits and in coordination with [redacted] (SF Community Outreach Specialist), writer sought the assistance of [redacted] Community Outreach Specialist, Las Vegas Division, who will supply 250 kits in support of the SRVIC request.
