AGENT COPY

Date of transcription 08/01/2006

[redacted] date of birth [redacted] social security account number [redacted] residing at [redacted] Santa Clara, California, home phone number [redacted] was interviewed at the San Francisco FBI field office. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] applied with the San Francisco Housing Authority (SFHA) for low income housing in 2002. In May 2005, [redacted] his wife, and seven children moved into [redacted] San Francisco, California, which was operated by SFHA. Approximately several weeks later, a neighbor across from [redacted] residence made a comment to [redacted] that OSAMA BIN LADEN was now living in the complex, implying that [redacted] was BIN LADEN. Approximately several weeks after the BIN LADEN incident, a black permanent marker drawing of a man with a beard and gun pointed at his head was on the wall next to [redacted] front door. SFHA had removed the drawing by painting over it.

On Sunday, August 28, 2005, [redacted] and his family were leaving to go to Santa Clara, California. When driving away from their residence, a black male on another street pointed to [redacted] car and told [redacted] to stop the car. [redacted] thought the black male was trying to get into a physical confrontation and so [redacted] drove away.

When [redacted] and his family arrived back to their residence on August 28, 2005, they found that someone had broken into their residence. [redacted] called the police, who came to his residence and searched the area with him. There was a hole made in the building's basement to gain entrance to the residence. [redacted] groceries and personal possessions were broken and scattered in the residence. [redacted] and his family's Middle Eastern clothing were torn and thrown on the floor but not his family's Western style clothing. In a closet filled with assorted books, only a copy of the Koran was removed. The Koran was thrown into the family's cooking bucket filled with flour. [redacted] passport was found torn and thrown outside the front door. [redacted] felt the people who broke into his house wanted [redacted] and his family to leave the neighborhood.
