Title: HATE CRIMES MATTERS

Synopsis: To document potential racially motivated death threats received by [redacted] on his cell phone.

Details: On February 1, 2007, [redacted] Hate Crimes Prevention [redacted] Muslim Public Affairs Council (MPAC), phone number [redacted] located in Los Angeles, California, called San Francisco FBI about an alleged hate crimes incident.

On February 2, 2007, SA [redacted] contacted [redacted] about the incident. [redacted] had received a call on the civil rights hotline at the MPAC from [redacted] regarding telephonic death threats [redacted] had received.

On February 5, 2007, SA [redacted] contacted and interviewed [redacted] at the University of California at Berkeley, telephonically at [redacted] said he was one of the organizers of an anti-war protest on January 27, 2007.

[redacted] said he had given out flyers to many people and placed the flyers in various locations to get more people to join the protest. [redacted] cell phone number [redacted] was on the flyer as a point of contact for the protest.

Two days after the protest, on January 29, 2007, [redacted] received two different death threats on his cell phone. Even though [redacted] has caller identification on his cell phone, these calls were blocked numbers and did not show up on his cell phone. [redacted] believes both callers were adult males.

The first unknown caller said, "Be very, very careful. You wouldn't want an accident happen to you."

[redacted] ACS checks for [redacted] resulted positively [redacted] [redacted] written on October 31, 2002, from the Omaha Division, file number [redacted] in which the complainant received three emails addressed from [redacted] This email address appeared to be from [redacted] The emails conveyed hatred towards the United States and Israel and support for the Palestinian cause.

San Francisco FBI will not conduct a logical investigation on the above mentioned matter at this time since this incident does not show evidence of a violation of a federal statute, especially in matters of a hate crime.
