Dear SAC Thornton:

The San Bruno Police Department is once again holding our Annual Police Recognition Exhibit at The Shops at Tanforan Shopping Center. This year will be our 27th event that honors Peace Officers killed or disabled while serving their communities.

The theme of the exhibit is crime prevention and public education in regards to Law Enforcement. In the past years, the event was met with great success. To make this exhibit successful, it takes your participation and cooperation. Please support this meaningful event by helping to educate the public about what your community or organization is doing in the area of crime prevention and public safety. Police recruiting at this event is also a valuable tool. Police vehicles, crime prevention displays, recruiting and Police K-9's are welcome. In order to make this year's event a success, we are asking for and look forward to your participation.

If your Police K-9's are available to assist in the K-9 demonstrations on Saturday, please contact Officer [redacted] at 650-616-7100.
