Re: (U) [redacted] 09/07/2004

[redacted] during July 2004. It was explained to [redacted] that an interview [redacted] was necessary due to some recent irregularities [redacted] [redacted] confirmed that [redacted] had recently returned to [redacted] and was living [redacted]. He agreed to contact [redacted] and arrange for an introduction and meeting during the afternoon of the following day at his own residence.

(U) During the afternoon of 09/01/2004, [redacted] was contacted at his residence, [redacted]. The following information, provided by [redacted] during the course of the interview, is being documented as an addition to information provided in referenced serial regarding [redacted].

(U) Construction of the new [redacted] [redacted] is progressing very slowly. [redacted] attributed this to two different things. Primarily, they were finding it very difficult to receive the necessary permits from the City [redacted]. Additionally, most of the work [redacted] [redacted] is being performed by volunteers. Because the work was volunteered, it was difficult to impose strict deadlines on work performance. [redacted] pointed out that most of the volunteers are not at liberty to [redacted].

(U) Asked about the length of his residence at his current address, [redacted] stated that he had been at his current residence, a single family home, for approximately five years. Prior to that, [redacted] and his family lived in a nearby apartment. The apartment, [redacted] was noisy and afforded little privacy. Because of the inadequacy of the apartment, [redacted] had contemplated [redacted] [redacted] where he felt that his family's quality of life was better. However, after moving to his current residence, he found that his family's quality of life was greatly improved and far better than in [redacted].

(U) At the conclusion of the interview, [redacted] expressed gratitude over the FBI's assistance in clearing up any discrepancies or misunderstandings with regard to [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted]. He commented that it was a direct and positive result of earlier liaison with [redacted].
