Title: COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAM

Synopsis: EC to document participation in the Sacramento Oak Park Foundation's 1st Annual Multi-Cultural Music Fest.

Details: On September 8, 2007, SA Dupre participated in the Sacramento Oak Park Foundation's 1st Annual Multi-Cultural Music Fest. An information table was set up to display and distribute various FBI informational brochures including: recruiting brochures, child identification kits, puzzle books for children and anti gang/drug brochures. The event was free to the public and was heavily attended. As stated in the event's flyer the goal was "to bring the community together through music, food, entertainment and a celebration of richly diverse cultures and to stimulate family bonds and elevate the consciousness of community members". Several potential Citizens' Academy candidates were also identified.
