Prophet Muhammad's Last Sermon

"All men, whatever nation or tribe they may belong to, and whatever station in life they may hold, are equal. No one has any claim of superiority over another. An Arab possesses no superiority over a non-Arab. A white man is in no way superior to a black man, and for that matter, nor a black man better than a white, but only to the extent to which he discharges his duty towards God and man.

The most honored among you in the sight of God is the most righteous among you.

God has made the life, property and honor of every man sacred. To take any man's life or his property or to attack his honor is unjust and wrong."
