[redacted]

The purpose of the meeting was to engage in community outreach and liaison and demonstrate the federal interest in a possible hate crime that occurred at the Mosque. On April 21, 2008, a slightly burned Qur'an and a note with derogatory inferences were found inside the Mosque.

SA [redacted] initiated a productive dialogue and provided three FBI pamphlets: 1) The FBI's Civil Rights Program, 2) Federal Protections Against National Origin Discrimination, and 3) The FBI: Frequently Asked Questions. SA [redacted] referenced the Civil Rights Program pamphlet and explained each of the federal civil rights statutes as they relate to hate crimes.
