Special Agents and Support Personnel attended opening ceremonies and participated in a five mile leg of the Torch Run.

E. Other Significant Programs

The Indianapolis Division was honored to host a group of Citizens' Academy Alumni on a two day trip to Washington, D.C. and Quantico, Virginia to tour FBI Headquarters and the FBI Academy. 17 graduates got an inside look at the Strategic Information and Operations Center (SIOC) at FBIHQ. We were also privileged to tour the HRT tactical training house, visit the FBI Laboratory, witness TVOC training, and observe Special Agents participating in physical training and defensive tactics at the FBI Academy. A camera crew from local television station WISH TV accompanied our group on the trip. Subsequently, a thorough presentation of the opportunities available with the FBI Citizens' Academy Program was shown as a series of stories on the evening news.

The Division's fourth session of Citizens' Academy participants graduated in October 2004. This six week Academy began September 16, 2004 and concluded with graduation ceremonies on October 21, 2004. Topics covered included the FBI's deadly force policy, white collar crime, violent crime and major offenders, terrorism, foreign counterintelligence and domestic terrorism. During the graduation ceremony, several of the graduates gave moving testimonials of their appreciation of the Academy and the tremendous effect this opportunity had on their perception of the FBI. They also expressed their deep gratitude to the men and women of the FBI.
