A. Adopt-A-School Programs

During the 2003-2004 academic school year, the OCD maintained its partnership with Heronville Elementary School in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Approximately four professional support OCD employees were involved in mentoring Heronville students each week.

B. YOUTH PROGRAMS

OCD supported the Latino Community Development Agency by providing rulers, pencils, puzzle books, coloring books, booklets, and other leave-behind items to several elementary, middle, and high schools in Oklahoma at the Back-to-School Celebration.

The SAC attended a Youth Rally sponsored by the Latino Community Development Agency held at Capitol Hill High School in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Leave-behind items were also provided for this event.

C. COMMUNITY/PRIVATE SECTOR INITIATIVES

In October the OCD participated in the 25th Birthday Celebration for Francis Tuttle Vocational Technology School. A display booth was constructed where OCD employees provided child identification kits to parents. Representatives from local, state, and federal agencies, to include Oklahoma City Police Department, Oklahoma County Sheriff's Office, Drug Enforcement Agency, Oklahoma Highway Patrol, Air Force Office of Special Investigations, and the United States Marshals Service also participated.

D. WORKPLACE PROGRAMS

The SAC promoted various workplace community events during 2004. Examples include:

American Cancer Society - Daffodil Days
- Making Strides Against
Breast Cancer

Latino Community Development Agency -
Sponsored a family for Christmas

Oklahoma Blood Institute - Blood Drives

Combined Federal Campaign of Central Oklahoma-
Bake Sale
Loaned Executive Program
Campaign Kickoff and Pledge Drive

E. DRUG AWARENESS PROGRAMS

The SAC promoted the National Red Ribbon Week 2004 Campaign. OCD employees were reminded of the origin of the National Red Ribbon Week Campaign and provided ribbons to signify their support. Ribbons were also provided to local area schools.

F. STATE AND LOCAL

Tours were provided for various local groups to include boy scout troops, girl scout troops, schools, as well as local community service organizations.

G. PARTNERSHIPS

OCD continued its partnership with the American Football Coaches Association and local Rotary Clubs.

H. OTHER SIGNIFICANT PROGRAMS

One Citizens' Academy was hosted by OCD during 2004. This academy was well attended and overwhelmingly successful. This Academy was held in the Spring of 2004 with fourteen graduates. The Citizens' Academy makes the OCD accessible to a variety of community leaders within the community it serves. Citizens' Academy classes have provided assistance in reaching the diverse communities in the Metropolitan Oklahoma City area.
