Diagram illustrating a multi-layered structure, possibly a cross-section of a material or a schematic of a device. The structure consists of several rectangular regions defined by black lines.

- The top region is a large rectangle with five dots along its left vertical edge.
- Below the top region is a horizontal rectangular bar.
- Underneath the bar is a large rectangular region. To the left of this region, the number "20" is written twice, once near the top and once near the bottom, indicating a dimension or parameter.
- The bottom-most region is a horizontal rectangular bar.
