Stevie, how did this initiative play out? What responses did you get? Where is the action now in terms of CBH strategic messaging? This seems like a horse that is forever stuck in the starting gate. Dan

Colleagues,

I've attached the last version of the Counter BH Messaging Strategy that was developed through the community of interest last year that did not get much traction. Perhaps it's worth a review to see what's still applicable and can be useful moving forward. I look forward to your thoughts.

Subject: RE: Counter-Boko Haram

Hi Bernadette,

Good to know. This is the latest version of the Boko Haram messaging strategy I did as part of my role coordinating an (NSC-mandated) interagency BH messaging working group, at the request of U/S Stengel. I am still waiting for Embassy Abuja to clear it (they said it should be done by today, but I'm still waiting). I worked closely with AF/NPOG (Amb Mozena, [REDACTED]) have reviewed it as well.

As for the discussion, it was a briefing on BH with [REDACTED], detailing background and current events and expectations, with Buhari now at the helm. [REDACTED]
