All -

An NCTC CVE expert will be in Atlanta June 1st for a collaborative discussion on community resilience. We arranged the below schedule of meetings and hope that you can join us at GEMA HQs (breakfast included).

0900-1000 NCTC presents Community Awareness Briefing (CAB)*
1000-1015 Break
1015-1045 GEMA outlines in-house CVE briefing and CVE rollout plan to communities
1045-1130 Joint discussion on tailoring CVE message to different audiences (law enforcement, vs. schools/parents), best practices, potential hurdles/backlash. NCTC can provide feedback from its experience with communities nation-wide.

*The CAB is tailored for communities to highlight how terrorists recruit adolescents. The CAB has been delivered with positive feedback across the nation. NCTC is presenting the CAB in this venue to support Georgia CVE efforts.

The [redacted] will also be in attendance. [redacted] was new to me, so for those who also might be unfamiliar...the City of Atlanta, Fulton, Cobb, DeKalb, Gwinnett and Clayton Counties are involved in [redacted] Through the Atlanta [redacted] the [redacted] and [redacted] with [redacted] have expressed interest in starting a CVE program. GEMA is working with them so they can leverage each other's resources and get more bang for the buck.

Please let me know if you are available to attend the meeting on June 1st.

Thank you, I look forward to a productive morning.
