Hi (b)(6)

I checked into this:

HRAccess will not be assisting as SWF has no needs, a pretty full pipeline and does not require a JOA at this time. They consider this a Branding event.

If you and a officer(s) would like to attend, you are welcome to since there is no fee for registration. HRAccess no longer provides promotional trinkets.

I would like to represent TSA for this Job Fair. Do we have anything to hand out to the kids or is there anyone in our region who does this. I know when we had a Job Fair in Laredo a lady came from Houston and set the table up with all sorts of hand outs and freebies. This was her job, she traveled all over for it.

I'd agree, but TSA has now allowed even its HR contractors to buy anymore handouts. Lonnie does/did have baseball cards that are very popular with kids and the junior badges are always a hit with smaller kids

Great, I know the comments you made about last year's event and how well it went, let's hope this year is even better.

Lonnie and his team are supporting the Super Bowl this weekend, but next week we can begin to make more plans.

[Faint, illegible text]

Let me know how I can assist, $$$ is not available, but there are TSA HQ program offices that may be able to assist. We should have plenty of Junior TSO Badges, but maybe we should buy some more with 2,000 kids attending. Baseball Cards may be in limited supply, so it sounds like we will want to do some printing.

Do you know if any of the nearby Cat X airports are going to participate?

We had our meeting last week and so far they have over 2000 kids signed up to attend. Usually they get a few more schools signing up as it gets nearer, so we should have a nice crowd like last year.

Ray,

We have the TSA table cover and the pull up poster they can use for this event.

Lonnie is planning on going with the K9s to this annual event attended by SWF (b)(6) said it's well attended each year. The K9s will be a big hit, and the Baseball Cards and Junior TSA Badge we have will surely be a winner.

I'll get public affairs involved as we near this event. While I don't foresee any HR recruiting for these young future TSOs; we may be able to provide some props like the pull up photo of future TSOs used at recruiting events; the table top, etc.

More to come as we approach this special event.

Nadine & (b)(6)

See attached Kids Job Fair that (b)(6) is involved with at SWF. This sounds interesting to attend, but trinkets and handouts are no longer purchased or promoted by TSA.

If this is kids attending, we do have the Junior TSA Officer badges that kids love at ALB and spokes. I often see them wearing the badge. Plus, a real popular handout is the K9 Baseball Cards that Lonnie and his team hand out and trade.

(b)(6) do you have more information on this event? I can ask public affairs in DC for some help, this may also be a great community event that public affairs would like to promote showing our involvement in the community. Y2K was 12/31/1999 @ 12:01 AM; does this mean that maybe the Kids are in the 13 year old age bracket.

You have my curiosity on this request, give me some more information and I can review to see if I know of anyone at TSA that can assist.

Hi Ray, they are sending feelers out for the kids job fair coming in March. I know that we don't have any TSA goodies to hand out here. Do you have anything. I know I don't want to go to this if we don't have anything to give out. That's pretty much the whole concept.

Happy New Year Everyone:

This is just a reminder that the Y2Kids planning meeting will be held on Friday, January 24, 2014 at 9:00 am at the Wings of West Point - 2nd Aviation Detachment hangar conference room. If you have not responded if you are attending, please do so.

Hi Everyone:

Y2Kids 2014 is fast approaching and is scheduled for Tuesday, March 18 with a snow date of March 19.

Stacie DeMaro and Trish Huggins are the point people at BOCES CTEC handling the event and I am working with them.

I would like to invite you or a representative to attend the planning meeting for the 15th annual Y2Kids Careers from A to Z event. As I stated, it is scheduled for March 18 with a snow date of March 19 at the 2nd Aviation Detachment Hangar.

Our planning and logistics meeting will be held on Friday, January 24, 2014 at 9:00 am at the Wings of West Point - 2nd Aviation Detachment hangar conference room.

This will be an opportunity to review our plans with key airport and security managers and make sure that we are all in agreement as to how to coordinate hangar access to promote a safe event for our community. We will bring copies of last year's plans for discussion along with coffee and breakfast items. Please let me know if you and your colleagues will be attending so we can plan accordingly. If you cannot attend, please send a representative-if you are aware of another person or agency who should also be part of the discussion, please forward this email and let me know.

Thank you for your support of this exciting effort, we look forward to our meeting.

Best regards,
Stacie DeMaro
Trish Huggins

Good morning (b)(6)

Mike and I are leaving Albany soon, wondering where we could meet ya at? We have the address to the US Army 2d Aviation Detachment, and are planning on heading straight there unless you want to meet at a different location? Could you give me your phone number and I will call you when we get there. Thanks
