

NATIONAL COUNTERTERRORISM CENTER

	Means
	CVE TF HQ	Research and Analysis	Engagement and Technical Assistance	Communications	Interventions
	Ways
National Priorities Enhance Federal Engagement with and Support to Local Communities that May be Targeted by Violent Extremists	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Coordinate, prioritize and deconflict • support to domestic CVE stakeholder activities • CVE activities within Federal government - Establish assessment and allocation prioritization process 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Leverage research networks - Recommend strategy adaptations based upon continually enhanced threat understanding - Coordinate Federal support for research, development and relevant program evaluation - ID and assess promising practices and programs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Provide training based on intelligence, research, and accurate info about how people are radicalized to accept violence and what has worked - Develop and distribute CVE information resources - Develop and distribute training and tools - Establish reach back support mechanisms 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Develop and make accessible digital technologies for application locally - Create partnerships between Federal Gov't and third parties w/CVE-relevant expertise 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identify, assess, and reinforce LE-led multi-disciplinary intervention programs - Advise, assist and provide support to community efforts to intervene between violent extremists and vulnerable individuals or groups
Build Government and Law Enforcement Expertise	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Ensure non-traditional partners participate and contribute to broad community engagements and relationship responsibilities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Assess government and LE expertise and inform education and training efforts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Incorporate non-traditional partners into available CVE expert pool - Increase numbers of educated and trained government and LE personnel 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Develop and maintain a centrally-managed analysis and information resource 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Provide intervention training to state and local LE personnel
Counter Propaganda and Promote our Ideals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Maintain centrally managed national messages and themes - Incorporate regional perspectives and local Messaging via enduring engagements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Closely monitor the important role the internet and social networking sites play in advancing violent extremist narratives 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Develop and apply communications and media strategy - Coordinate a centrally managed messaging effort 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Apply centrally managed intervention messaging
Operational Goals (Ends)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Federal and Local efforts are complementary and reinforcing rather than disjointed, redundant or lacking - Assessment process with feedback mechanisms in place 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - New developments are identified and predicted - A continually enhanced understanding of the threat posed by violent extremism and the ways in which individuals or groups seek to radicalize Americans is maintained 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Local Partners apply training to prevent radicalization - Federal and LE personnel are informed and apply training to enable and empower local partners 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Digital technologies engage, empower and connect CVE stakeholders to the communications narrative - Accessible, detailed threat picture and info resources available and applied to prevention efforts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Communities lead successful interventions - Alternative disposition options and rehabilitation programs applied to those who have reached the threshold for LE action

Strategic Goal (Ends): Violent extremists and their supporters are prevented from inspiring, radicalizing, financing, or recruiting individuals or groups in the U.S. to commit acts of violence