

INTERNET ARCHIVE 46 captures
JUN JUL SEP
◀ 14 ▶
2006 2007 2008

TERRORISM Awareness and Prevention

- Home
- Introduction
- What is Terrorism?
- Who are Terrorists?
- Protecting Your Community
- Reporting Suspected Terrorist Activity
- Resources
- About Us
- Contact Info

Protecting Your Community

Introduction
Terrorists Vulnerabilities
Staying Alert
Overcoming Stereotypes
Recognizing Suspicious Activity
Interactive Quiz

Recognizing Suspicious Activity

Identifying suspicious activity is not a hard science. You have to rely on your judgment. Your suspicion of a threat could be confirmed with one incident. It could take a series of incidents. In the long run, it comes down to:

- Experience
- Judgment
- Commonsense

Let's review some possible suspicious activity. These examples may not always justify reporting. They may not always lead to criminal or terrorist activity.

:: next page -->

2003 Terrorism Awareness and Protection | PO Box 1167 | Harrisburg, PA 17105
 Phone: (717) 735-5593 (t) | Fax: (717) 783-7149 (f) | e-mail: info@pa-aware.org

Related Topics: Background Watch Program | Antiterrorism and Counterterrorism Training | Antiterrorism and Counterterrorism Training
 Terrorism Awareness Information | Antiterrorism Awareness | Homeland Defense
Terrorism and Security | Terrorism and Security