

(U) Foreign Terrorist Organizations' Official Media Arms and Violent Extremist Web Forums*

(U) Each of the foreign terrorist organizations (FTOs) referenced in this graphic use social media to disseminate official messaging, recruit potential members, and convince potential supporters to mobilize to violence. Due to the dynamic social media environment—including the termination of user accounts by social media sites for violations of terms of service (b) (3), (b) (7)(E)

We have, however, listed the social media platforms these FTOs often use to initially disseminate their messaging. Additionally, we have provided information on the types of products disseminated through these platforms and the languages in which such media is often produced.

(U) Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant's (ISIL) Media Arms

(U) This graphic does not include information on ISIL's (b) (3), (b) (7)(E) or information on ISIL's (b) (3), (b) (7)(E)

(U) Violent Extremist Web Forums

(U) The web forums discussed below often facilitate the dissemination of FTO official and unofficial messaging and (b) (3), (b) (7)(E) to view the majority of its content. Most forum participants are likely violent extremists, although some could be there for legitimate purposes. Because of consistent lapses in web forum service, violent extremists and FTOs have increasingly been looking to other avenues, especially social media, to disseminate and discuss violent extremist messaging; however, al-Qa'ida core has historically preferred forums for dissemination. The following forums continue to play a role in the dissemination and discussion of extremist content by violent extremists.

(U) Al-Qa'ida and Affiliates' Media Arms

* (U) Awareness of the media arms and forums provided in this poster can assist state, local, tribal, territorial (SLTT), private sector, and community partners in identifying and reporting suspicious activity. However, I&A cautions that US persons' possession of material produced by these groups and engagement in these forums, without explicitly advocating or demonstrating an interest in mobilizing for violence, may be constitutionally protected activity and should be evaluated in the context of the situation.

(U) To report suspicious activity, law enforcement, Fire-EMS, private security personnel, and emergency managers should follow established protocols; all other personnel should call 911 or contact local law enforcement.

Suspicious activity reports (SARs) will be forwarded to the appropriate fusion center and FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force for further action. For information on reporting SARs, visit <http://nsi.ncirc.gov/resources.aspx>.
