Highlights

Severe Weather and Flooding – Gulf Coast, U.S.

Heavy rainfall continues to produce widespread, moderate to major flooding over Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Mississippi. Areas of the Lower Mississippi Valley will experience long duration flood crests throughout the week. Protective Security Coordination Division Region VI elements report multiple road closures throughout the region due to flooding and debris. FEMA reports Boil Water Advisories remain in effect for several areas in LA.

States of Emergency have been issued for LA and MS, and a Major Disaster Declaration was issued for LA. Mississippi's Governor issued an executive order mobilizing the Mississippi National Guard to assist with high-water rescues.

The National Cybersecurity & Communications Integration Center (NCCIC) reports no known communication impacts due to the flooding. The NCCIC continues to monitor the severe weather for impacts.

The National Infrastructure Coordinating Center (NICC) reports no known impacts to national critical infrastructure. The NICC remains in contact with NPPD's Infrastructure Protection – Protective Security Advisors for situational awareness updates.

- LA and MS SEOCs are at Partial Activation
- National IMAT West and FEMA Region I IMAT deployed to LA SEOC
- Arkansas EOC is at the Monitoring Level
- Region VI Regional Watch Center remains at Enhanced Watch (day shift)

Metro Line Disruptions Due to Cable Fire – Washington, D.C.

At 0547 EDT, Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority reported the Orange, Blue, and Silver metro lines at McPherson Square were temporarily suspended due to a cable fire. One of two tracks will need to be repaired, and McPherson Square is closed to riders. Limited rail service has been restored between Foggy Bottom and Federal Center SW. The Blue and Orange trains to Virginia will pass through McPherson Square and Farragut West to reduce delays and the Silver line trains will continue to operate between Wiehle-Reston and Ballston only. Delays of 30 to 60 minutes are expected.

Key Activity Highlights

- Assistant Secretary Durkovich and Deputy Assistant Secretary (DAS) Kolasky will attend the National Infrastructure Advisory Council Quarterly Business Meeting. Arlington, VA.
- IICD and PSCD leadership will attend the PSA PCII rule update discussion. Arlington, VA.
