Subject: Citadel Conference - CVE Panel

Hello everyone,

Thank you for tentatively agreeing to be on the CVE Panel at the Citadel Conference in September!

The Citadel 2015 Intelligence & Homeland Security Enterprise Conference conference will be Sept 17-18th at the Charleston Marriott Hotel (with the 16th being a day for recruiters) and will include panels ranging from social media, CVE, to lone wolves. You are welcome to stay for the entire two days (ends by noon on the 18th), and you can see the agenda here:

<http://www.citadel.edu/root/criminaljustice-2015-ihse-conference/schedule>. The conference will start officially on the 17th with opening remarks by DIA Director LTG Stewart at 9am. The first panel after him will be ours, at 10 am. We will have 90 minutes.

Please confirm your participation NLT Monday, July 27th so we can solidify the panel. Thank you in advance!

Background

The Citadel is organizing a Conference from 16-18 September, with the first day focused on a career fair, with reps from various intel agencies participating. The next two days will be focused on a range of topics, and include featured speakers such as LTG Stewart (Dir, DIA) and RADM Tomney (USCG N2) and possibly FBI Dir Comey. There will be participation from numerous government agencies, contractors, and academia within the intelligence and homeland security communities. The conference website is:
